

SHORT & SWEET

Diminutive new mirrors designed by Anna Fendi combine the artistry of Murano glass with a wonderfully intimate scale.

*m*easuring a mere 13 inches tall and less than eight inches wide, these enchanting mirrors designed by Anna Fendi (of the Italian fashion family) are as delicately scaled as they are subtly colored. When light hits the Murano glass leaves, buds, and scrolls, they take on a burnished glow. They are handmade and feel so charming—just the thing to add a bit of sweetness and sparkle to a dressing room, powder room, or foyer. $650 each; 011-39-06-322-6776. □
